

Railroad Agent McBride informs the Silver State that the Southern Pacific Company has issued a special tariff on soft lumber, lath and shingles in carload lots, from lumber shipping points on the Truckee river Nevada and Utah. The rate on lumber under the new tariff, will be from Truckee to Nevada and Utah points, east of Hot Springs, including Ogden, $40 per carload of 20,000 pounds. The rate from Towle's Station West of Truckee will be three dollars additional per carload. The old rate on lumber from Truckee to Winnemucca was $91 per carload, and from Boca $88 per carload.

This is the first good effect of the Inter-State Commerce Act, noticeable in this part of the country, and others are certain to follow. San Francisco merchants who are interested in keeping rates from the East to Nevada, three times what they are in San Francisco, so as to control the trade of the interior, have been endeavoring to make it appear that the enforcement of section four of the act will ruin many industries on the Pacific Coast. There is nothing in the bill however, to sustain this view. The Act does not fix the rate on any class of freight; that is left exclusively to the roads. It only provides that roads shall not charge more for a like class of freight for a shorter than a longer distance over the same line. There is nothing in the Act that prohibits railroads from carrying wine, wool, fruits, etc., at the same rates as heretofore, and unless the transcontinental roads combine to kill those industries by a tariff that they cannot stand, and that they could do if the Inter-State Act was not in existence, they will not suffer from the operation of the act.

KEEP YOUR TEMPER.

The APPEAL very much regrets to announce that in the freeze out match now being played by the newspapers of this city the Union has lost its temper and trying to mar the sociability of the game by a row. Peppery people should never sit down to play if they do not feel able to control their feelings when the cards don't run their way.

Nobody invited the Union into the game, anyhow, and after noticing how many green players had fallen out of it badly crippled, it should have learned wisdom by the sad experience of others and tackled some smaller game. Above all things our evening contemporary should keep its temper and not try to break up the pleasant pastime by smashing up the bar fixtures or refusing to settle with the house.

The chief requisite for a good freeze out player is a stiff upper lip and a bland smiling countenance when the points go against him. He should also be cautious about offering his opponent more points than he has in his own hand and avoid brash and reckless play.

"Keep your temper, Charlie, then your hand will be a good deal steadier when you deal from the bottom."

"Jake, bring us a fresh pack and four more beers."

"Chalk this last round up as before."

"Charlie, quit monkeying with the counters, and per fair."

—It is said to be a matter of wonder how many people are anxious to enter into the employment of the railroads at present. A St. Paul man, worth millions, wanted to be enrolled as an humble flagman the other day, and thousands of other men with wealth, good business and gratifying incomes are asking for, like humble employment. Is this because the being a railroad employee is a sort of badge of royalty in this country, or is it because railroad employees are permitted even under the Inter-State Commerce bill, to enjoy that boon, denied to other mortals, a railroad pass.—Red Wing Republican.

—An agent of 500 English people is negotiating for 80,000 acres of land in California for general farming.

Nevada could capture this crowd if it only had a good enterprising Immigration Society.
